

Council Committees

Ministries are not "work groups" but places for coordination, shared planning and leadership support.

A member of the leadership team works with each ministry to provide pastoral support and mentoring.

The Executive Committee of Church Council has been eliminated.